ferrets that ingest ibuprofen are at high risk for cns depression and coma, with or without gi upset every operated patient needs to come back to the center for the functional restoration of the spine for a follow-up 10 days after surgery and 4 to 6 weeks after surgery antifluoridationists have made such hollow threats, and had their legal challenges rejected by the courts each and every time attempted, since the beginning of water fluoridation 70 years ago sometimes trainers accidentally cut it too close to the cut-off date